Oklahoma Indian Affairs Commission: 1967–2008

From the Executive Director

The Oklahoma Indian Affairs Commission (OIAC) is a state agency statutorily created in 1967 to serve as liaison between the Executive and Legislative branches of state government and Oklahoma's Tribal Leadership. In 2008, the Commission celebrates its 41st year of service. We appreciate the support we receive from State and Tribal governments. We look forward to another 41 years of serving both the American Indian and non-Indian citizens of this Great State.

The Oklahoma Indian Nations Pocket Pictorial Directory

is our most requested publication. It contains information relating to the 37 federally recognized tribes of Oklahoma. If there is statistical information you would like to see printed in next year's publication, please contact our office.

NOTE: Tribal Leaders are current as of January 1, 2008.

ABOUT THIS EDITION

From the Executive Director

The Oklahoma Indian Affairs Commission conducts an annual tribal survey to gather resource information to be used in this pictorial directory and our "Oklahoma Indian Nations Information Handbook." Without the cooperation of Oklahoma's sovereign nations, this publication would not be possible.

We hope this pictorial directory, as well as our other publications, prove to be useful resources.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Oklahoma Indian Affairs Commission would like to express our gratitude to Oklahoma's 37 tribal governments for their cooperation in providing photos and information on their respective tribe/nation and for their continued support of our agency. Every effort was made to ensure the accuracy of the information you have provided and we thank you for your contribution.

I would also like to publicly thank the OIAC staff for their hours of work on this product and our Board of Commissioners for their input and support throughout the various stages of development of this publication.
